Alison Bodine:

The following resolution was adopted at the General Membership Meeting of the Education and Training Employees' Association (ETEA) on September 27, 2007.

Be it resolved that Local 21 Representative 80-100- send a letter to Alison Bodine reiterating the President's message that we demand the Border Services drop all charges and let Alison Bodine resume her travels back and forth between Canada and the USA, and continue her political activism as is guaranteed for all residents of Canada under the Charter.

Yours truly,

Bari Blackhart

Bari Blackhart
