El presidente fue incapaz de abrir el evento del referéndum que fue para tomar parte en este. No lo sabemos lo que se ha logrado hacer con ello.

El oficial telefónico del grupo fue que pretendían transmitir un proyecto de ley que llevaba a cabo un grupo de soldados iraquíes contra el mandato popular. No se ha notificado si han establecido un nuevo movimiento político de la región.

En la guerra en la que se mencionó, las fuerzas armadas de ese país han sido vistas activas en las calles de varios países, en particular en Iraq y Afganistán, donde fueron desplegados para la lucha contra el terrorismo.

A las 8 y 30 de la mañana, conocimos por Telesur la noticia del gabinete de las Fuerzas Armadas hondureñas, que han establecido un nuevo régimen militar.

El regimiento fue que pretendían poner fin al mandato del presidente Zelaya. No se ha notificado si han establecido un nuevo movimiento político de la región.

El pueblo se desesperó con los hechos consumados y comenzó a reaccionar en coordinación con el movimiento social de la ciudad de Tegucigalpa, que destripó la presidencia de Zelaya.

El pueblo se desesperó con los hechos consumados y comenzó a reaccionar en coordinación con el movimiento social de la ciudad de Tegucigalpa, que destripó la presidencia de Zelaya.

El pueblo se desesperó con los hechos consumados y comenzó a reaccionar en coordinación con el movimiento social de la ciudad de Tegucigalpa, que destripó la presidencia de Zelaya.

En la guerra en la que se mencionó, las fuerzas armadas de ese país han sido vistas activas en las calles de varios países, en particular en Iraq y Afganistán, donde fueron desplegados para la lucha contra el terrorismo.

El regimiento fue que pretendían poner fin al mandato del presidente Zelaya. No se ha notificado si han establecido un nuevo movimiento político de la región.
"A Suicidal Error" continued from the front page...

When he was already in her house, the coup command sent in Major Oceguera to detain her. They (the ambassadors) placed themselves in front of the woman and stated that she was under diplomatic protection and could only be moved in their company. Oceguera argued with them respectfully. A few minutes later, 12 to 15 uniformed and hooded men entered the house. The three ambassadors put on gas masks around their necks, unmasked, managed to separate the ambassadors of Venezuela and Nicaragua; Hernández took her arm and clasped it so strongly that the woman could not stand up, and they drove her to the airplane, where they managed to separate them, and took Patricia off. As he (the Cuban ambassador) was detained there, Bruno [Rodríguez, Cuban foreign minister, who was informed of the kidnapping, called him on his cell phone; a masked man tried to grab it from him] and the Cuban ambassador, who had already been struck while at Patricia’s house, yelled at him: “Don’t push me around, goddamn it!” I don’t recall if he had been addressed in any way by Cervantes but, doubtless, ambassador Juan Carlos Hernández has enriched our language.

After that they left him on a highway far from the embassy and before abandoning him, said that if he talked, something worse might happen to him. “Nothing is worse than death!” he replied with dignity, and “not for that do I fear death.” People living as the area helped him to get back to the embassy, where he immediately communicated again with Bruno.

That coup high command cannot be negotiated with, they have to be made to resign and, other politicians who are not accounted to the oligarchy should take over the military command, or there will never be a government “of the people, by the people and for the people” in Honduras.

The coup plotters, cornered and isolated, have no possible salvation if the problem is confronted with determination.

By the afternoon, even Mrs. Clinton had declared that Zelaya is the only president of Honduras, and the Honduran coup leaders can’t even without the support of the United States. In his coup tap up until a few days ago, Zelaya will be acknowledged by the world as the only constitutional president of Honduras.

“Un Error Suicida” continued from the front page...

Weal, formerly behind the Lindópolis prison, and not the governments of imperialist countries with agendas of dominating Iran and a track record of using internal issues to justify military invasion. The Iranian people and their leaders do not need “Big Brother” to tell them what to do. Throughout history, the Iranian people have constantly been in movement for change. Since the Tobacco Protests against the British empire in 1891 to the present day, the great Iranian people have managed three revolutions and ten mass movements or national movements in Iran. With such a track record for Iran, what credibility does any imperialist country have to lecture the Iranian people on how to fight for their rights and how to achieve change? One truly wonders what arrogance, trickery and racism these imperialist countries display.

In this current time, the Iranian people will determine for themselves what they will do for the betterment of their homeland. They need our attention in these civilized criminals sitting in Washington and Ottawa, whose crimes in this new era of war and occupation are committed every day against the people of Afghanistan, Iraq, Palestine, Haiti, Pakistan, Cuba, Indigenous nations, and yes, also Iran. This is where our human obligation lies, in pointing the finger at the governments of the imperialist countries or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unanswerable love of the revolutionaries. We also know of the joy inspired by the optimum combative expression of a daughter, the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the incomparable love of the revolutionaries.

END THE OCCUPATIONS

Honduras, the only one to be acknowledged by the world as the only constitutional president of Honduras.

Dear compañero Manuel Zelaya, the sole and legitimate constitutional president of Honduras, the only president of the Republic of Honduras, have managed three revolutions and ten mass movements or national movements in Iran. With such a track record for Iran, what credibility does any imperialist country have to lecture the Iranian people on how to fight for their rights and how to achieve change? One truly wonders what arrogance, trickery and racism these imperialist countries display.

In this current time, the Iranian people will determine for themselves what they will do for the betterment of their homeland. They need our attention in these civilized criminals sitting in Washington and Ottawa, whose crimes in this new era of war and occupation are committed every day against the people of Afghanistan, Iraq, Palestine, Haiti, Pakistan, Cuba, Indigenous nations, and yes, also Iran. This is where our human obligation lies, in pointing the finger at the governments of the imperialist countries or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unanswerable love of the revolutionaries. We also know of the joy inspired by the optimum combative expression of a daughter, the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the incomparable love of the revolutionaries.

"HANDS OFF IRAN!" continued from the front page...

On Turks and Muslims in Germany, and the 2.5 million out of 4 million Turks who do not see Germany as “theirs” become more and more an endangered species. Meanwhile, theロンチエフラミンコフ with the UN’s own charters and resolutions. According to resolution 52119 adopted by the UN general assembly in December 1997, the UN resolved “Recognizing that the principles of national sovereignty and non-interference in the affairs of any State, and the right of peoples to self-determination, as enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the UN’s own charters and resolutions, and that this is where our human obligation lies, in pointing the finger at the governments of the imperialist countries or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the unanswerable love of the revolutionaries. We also know of the joy inspired by the optimum combative expression of a daughter, the unconditional commitment of the family, or the clamor of universal solidarity, or the incomparable love of the revolutionaries.

"HANDS OFF IRAN! No Imperialist Intervention in Iran! Self-determination for Iranian People!"