Canadian Troops Out of Afghanistan

Rally and March

Sat, Oct 28th

Is this the weapon of a peacekeeper?

The new M777 155mm Howitzer, which came into service with the Canadian Artillery in November 2005, extends the range and lethality of fire-missions supporting ground operations. After extensive trials and shoots, the first new guns built for the Canadian Army were delivered 26 November, in preparation for deployment to Afghanistan

The most lethal piece of standard artillery
currently available.

Gather
Noon,
Waterfront Station
(at Canada Place)
