

LATIN AMERICA STANDS WITH GAZA

Cuba was the first Latin American country to sever ties with Israel (1973) and has never re-established relations. Venezuela followed suit after the Israeli assault on Gaza in 2009. Bolivia also limited its relations with Israel due to the attacks on Gaza, and recently called Israel a terrorist state. Since the recent attacks on Gaza, 5 Latin American countries have recalled their Ambassadors from Tel Aviv - Brazil, Chile, Ecuador, El Salvador and Peru. Argentina, Mexico, Nicaragua and Uruguay have also condemned the Israeli assault.
